

The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) Information

(This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully)

The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) provides safeguards to protect your privacy. Implementation of HIPAA requirements officially began on April 14, 2003. This form is a “friendly” version. A more complete text is available upon request.

What this is all about: Specifically, there are rules and restrictions on who may see or be notified of your Protected Health Information (PHI). These restrictions do not include the normal interchange of information necessary to provide you with office services.

HIPAA provides certain rights and protections to you as the patient. Additional information is available from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.
